LIBRARY NOTES

The present thought of the Agawam Center Library Association is, so far as possible, to follow to the letter the purpose of the Certificate of Incorporation. Two years ago, this certificate was found. Dated, September 5, 1923, it states the purpose of the Association is: "assisting, benefiting, fostering, and maintaining a public library and branch public libraries in the town of Agawam, Massachusetts". It is indeed heart-warming to think that 45 years ago, Mrs. Davis had the foresight to realize what a town of 6,920 population would need today! What a wonderful woman!

A thank you is also due the Association for their generous gift of money "for a booklist and furnishings for the new addition" and for their help in paying the salaries of assistant librarians in our other town libraries.

As noted elsewhere, Lt. Col. A. George Mallis gave the library a copy of his book entitled List of Die Varieties of Morgan Head Silver Dollars. This book is the result of examining over 35 thousand Morgan Silver Dollars. Col. Mallis is also authoring with Mr. VanAllen a book to be used as standard reference on Morgan Silver Dollars. Thank you, Col. Mallis. Those of you interested in collecting or "bartering" of coins can find up-to-date materials in the Numismatic News, The Numistist, Coinage and Coin World.

If you miss any of the Baseball Series this week, come into the library and read about it in the Sunday issue of either the New York Times or the National Observer or the daily issue of the Christain Science Monitor.

Zundell's Views on WASTE DISPOSAL

Longmeadow Selectman Clifford M. Zundell, candidate for Hampden County Commissioner, said today the need exists for "a vastly stepped up regional approach to the garbage and waste disposal problem that is faced by most of the county communities."

Mr. Zundell said: "The officials of almost every community in Hampden County are becoming increasingly concerned about the future of rubbish disposal. For some, the problem will come very soon; for others, a decision is a few years away.

"But the fact remains that the supply landfill sites or dumping grounds is not going to last much longer.

"I believe that an active and imaginative county commission could be instrumental in bringing the cities and towns together for in-depth discussion of this mutual problem.

"It is going to be a difficult problem to solve, because each of the county communities is understandably reluctant to have another community's rubbish deposited within its boundaries.

"But it is not a problem is going to be solved individually, because except for the larger cities, the communities of Hampden County just do not have the financial resources required for the construction and operation of an incinerator, or other massive waste disposal equipment.

"The Lower Pioneer Valley Regional Planning Commission has conducted fruitful discussion about waste disposal, and I feel that county government should become an added force and stimulus to get some action going on this major problem right now."

Fontana NAMES CO-ORDINATOR

Attorney Raymond J. Fontana of Springfield, candidate for re-election as Governor's Councilor from the 8th District, today announced that Selectman Richard S. Sullivan of West Springfield is serving as his campaign coordinator for Hampden County. Atty. Fontana's 8th District includes all of Western Massachusetts.

"I am delighted to be associated with Governor's Councilor Fontana in his campaign for re-election," Mr. Sullivan said. "He has been an active and effective member of the Governor's Council during his first term. He has served the office with dignity and he has been aware of the problems and needs of the people of the 8th Councilor District. He is the kind of man Western Massachusetts needs in Boston."

Selectman Sullivan was born in Holyoke, and has lived in West Springfield since 1941. He is a graduate of West Springfield High School, served in the U. S. Army, and attended American International College in Springfield. He is vice-president and general manager of the Sullivan Paper Co. in West Springfield. He is a former president of the Boys and Girls Club of West Springfield, is a director of Security National Bank, a trustee of the Eastern States Exposition, corporator of the Springfield Institute for Savings, and a member of the Rotary Club of West Springfield and the Hampden County Selectmen's Association. For five years he was district chairman of the National Federation of Independent Businesses.

Mr. Sullivan has been a West Springfield selectman for six years and previously was a member of the West Springfield finance committee, serving as chairman for two of his three years on the committee.
